

- 9:30-10:00 Registration
- 10:00-10:20 Workshop opening. Emeri Farinetti
- 10:30-10:50 Vasilis Evaggelidis. The impact of Rome on the landscape of Aegean Thrace: an archaeological approach
- 11:00-11:20 Francesco Gioacchino La Torre, Sophia Karapanou, Vassiliki Noula. Skotoussa after the battle of Kynoskephales (197 BC)
- 11:30-11:50 Philip Bes. A rising tide lifts all boats? Late Republican and Early Imperial Italian pottery from Boeotia in the Central Greek Landscape
- 12:00-12:20 Coffee break
- 12:20-12:40 Amedeo Rossi. The city and the chora of Festos in the Early Roman period
- 12:50-13:10 Michalis Karambinis. The cities of Roman Greece: a quantification
- 13:20-13:40 Kyriakos Loulakoudis. Archeological Evidence of wine and oil production in agricultural complexes of South Roman Greece
- 13:40-14:45 Lunch break
- 14:45-15:05 Anton Bonnier
Human-environment dynamics and (micro)regional landscape trajectories in the Hellenistic and Roman Peloponnese
- 15:15-16:05 Yannis Lolos. Sikyon during the 'interim period': literary tradition and material record
- 16:15-16:30 Coffee break
- 16:30-16:50 David Gilman Romano. Some considerations of the land between Corinth and Sikyon during the II and I centuries B.C.E.
- 17:00-17:45 Round-table. Coordinated by Sylvian Fachard and Athanasios Rizakis

International Workshop

Local responses to the Roman impact on the Greek landscape

October 11, 2019

Italian Archaeological School at Athens

Parthenonos 14

The workshop is organised by the Italian Archaeological School at Athens in the framework of the research project "Roman landscapes of Greece" conducted at the University of RomaTre (P.I. Emeri Farinetti) and funded by the Rita Levi Montalcini Programme - MIUR (Italian Ministry of University and Research)